

I believe it is wrong for the FCC to allow any further consolidation in the local media broadcast stations. It will result in less innovation and hurt small and large communities as a whole.